St. James's, November 19.

THE two following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted by the Lords Juſtices of Ireland to his Grace the Duke of Grafton Lord Lieutenant of that Kingdom, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty, who was pleaſed to receive them very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,
The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, at a General Quarterly Aſſembly held at the Thoſell of the ſaid City.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, in the moſt humble manner, beg Leave, in this great Conjuncture, to declare to your Majeſty our utmoſt Deteſtation of that horrid Conſpiracy which has been formed, and is ſtill carrying on againſt your moſt ſacred Perſon and Government, in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender.

When we reflect on the ineſtimable Happineſs we enjoy under your auſpicious Reign, and conſider that the Preſervation of our Civil Rights and Liberties, and the Security of the Proteſtant Religion, do wholly, under God, depend on the Safety of your Majeſty's Perſon, and the Succeſſion in your Royal Houſe, it raiſes in us the higheſt Reſentment and Indignation againſt thoſe ungrateful deſperate Traitors, who either through pernicious Principles, or private Diſcontents and Diſappointments, would overturn our moſt excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, involve their Country in Blood and Confuſion, and, in open Violation of all Obligations Divine and Humane, ſubject theſe Nations to the Revenge and Tyranny of a Popiſh Pretender, over which your Majeſty is Rightful and Lawful Sovereign.

We of this City hold ourſelves obliged, both in Duty and Gratitude, vigorouſly to oppoſe theſe Enemies of our preſent moſt happy Eſtabliſhment, and beg Leave, in the moſt ſolemn manner, on this important Occaſion, to renew our Declarations of an inviolable Zeal and Affection for your Royal Perſon and Family, and with the utmoſt Sincerity to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are determined to hazzard our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your moſt ſacred Perſon and Government, and ſupporting the Succeſſion in your Royal Houſe, againſt the Pretender, and all other your Majeſty's Enemies.

And as the divine Providence has hitherto preſerved your Majeſty from ſecret Conſpiracies and open Rebellion, and crowned your Councils and Arms with Succeſs, we doubt not but by the Bleſſing of Almighty God upon your Majeſty's Princely Care and Wiſdom, the Vigilance of your faithful Miniſtry, and upon the ready Aſſiſtance of your loyal Subjects, that theſe Traiterous Deſigns againſt your Majeſty will be rendered vain and ineffectual, and the malicious Efforts and wicked Machinations of your Enemies will be turned to their own Confuſion.

That your Majeſty's juſt and wiſe Adminiſtration may ever meet with ſuitable Returns of Duty and Loyalty from all your People, that you may Triumph over all your Enemies at Home and Abroad, and after a long and glorious Reign, that you may tranſmit the Government of theſe Kingdoms to a laſting Succeſſion of Princes in your own Royal Houſe, are the conſtant Prayers of us your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, loyal, and faithful Subjects.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the Common Seal of the ſaid City to be hereto affixed this Nineteenth Day of October, Anno Dom. one Thouſand ſeven Hundred and twenty two.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,
The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, near Dublin.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Provoſt, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, near Dublin, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that it is with the deepeſt Concern we underſtand, that a dangerous Conſpiracy hath been formed againſt your Perſon and Government in favour of a Popiſh Pretender.

And as this wicked Deſign hath been imparted to your Majeſty by the Powers in Alliance with you, we cannot but lament upon this Occaſion, that any Number of your Britiſh Subjects ſhould want that Affection to your Perſon and Government which is found even in the Hearts of Foreigners.

We hoped that the ſignal Infatuation and evil Succeſs of the former Devices and Attempts of your Enemies, added to the moſt ſacred Engagements of Duty to your Majeſty, would have ſo well ſecured your Government, that Rebellion ſhould no more attempt to diſturb your Reign; but are now forced to reflect with Horror upon the abandoned Condition of thoſe Men, whom no Obligations can bind, nor Experience admoniſh.

Your Majeſty's moſt gracious Reſolution of ſteadily adhering to the Conſtitution in Church and State, and continuing to make the Laws the Rule and Meaſure of all your Actions, cannot but be infinitely acceptable to all your Subjects, and is the nobleſt Foundation of that juſt Confidence wherewith you repoſe your ſelf upon the Affections of your People, and the Protection of the Divine Providence, which has ſo often and ſo viſibly interpoſed in your Favour.
